

Feedback from Participants on the training course "Producing Food Security Information Products that Result in Action":

"The training led us to apply simple principles, but with much additional value, in the day-to-day preparation of our documents.

- Mr. Mahama Zoungrana, Director General, DGPSA/Ministry of Agriculture, Burkina Faso, 8 months after the training

> See interview with Mr. Zoungrana: http://www.foodsec.org/news\_06\_20.htm

"I found the course excellent. It will help me improve interaction and coordination with our target audience."

- Ms. Ana Celeste Arteaga, Agencia Nacional de Segurança Alimentar (ANSA), Cape Verde, End of Training Evaluation

"After the training, we completely revised the AgriAlerte Bulletin. We reduced the descriptive part and included recommendations which were relevant to our target audience... Humanitarian agencies don't stop asking for it when planning their actions in the field"

- Mr. Mahamadou Ouédraogo, Information Centre, DGPSA/Ministry of Agriculture, Burkina Faso, 8 months after the training

"I really appreciated this course. It provided all the ingredients to stimulate and motivate the work of SETSAN focal points in the provinces."

- Ms Greta Stina Engelbert, Save The Children, based in Nampula Province, Mozambique, End-of-Training Evaluation

"As a trainer, I especially value the advice and skills received in this training. It will help me in preparing reports and manuals for my courses."

- Mr. Silvino Robalo Mendes Extensionist, Delegation of Ministry of Agriculture de Praia and São Domingos, Cape Verde, End-of-Training Evaluation

"What we learned during the training helped us to produce an agro-meteorological bulletin which is well structured and easy to read."

-Ms. Chhun Sokunth, MoWRAM, and Mr. Men Sothy, MAFF, Cambodia, September 2007, one year after the training

"This training gave me some new insights. Listening to users of information and colleagues express themselves about the publications was very useful. It gave me many ideas for improving them."

- Mr. Epitace Norbera, FEWSNET, Représentative in Haïti, End-of-Training Evaluation

"The CNSA has included the actions recommended at the end of the training for improving its publications in its 2008 Workplan and has already started implementing some of them."

- Mr. Gary Mathieu, Coordinator, Food Security National Coordination (CNSA), Haiti, 5 months after the training

"After the training, I met with my colleagues from other institutions who are members of the SETSAN provincial working group, I shared with them what I learned during the training, we reviewed our reports and improved the way we produced the information on food security and nutrition."

- Mr. Paulo Cordeiro, SETSAN Provincial Focal Point, Mozambique, 15 months after the training

For more information about the training courses, go to: http://www.foodsec.org/tr\_fsip.htm